

Lake Ontario salmon/trout identification

1. a) Large black spots on gill cover.....2
 b) No spots on gill cover.....3

2. a) Mouth extends past rear end of eye; spots round; spots above and below midline; spots surrounded by halo; may be orange on adipose fin; square tail; pectoral fins light; a few or many spots throughout dorsal fin: brown trout
 b) Mouth does not extend past rear end of eye; spots x shaped; spots only above midline; spots not surrounded by halo; no orange on adipose; tail slightly forked; pectoral fins dark; none or a few spots near base of dorsal fin: Atlantic salmon

3. a) Heavily spotted body, dorsal fin and tail; anal fin rays 7-12 (tip of anal fin extends past base when folded back): rainbow trout
 b) Lightly spotted body, dorsal fin and tail; anal fin rays 13-19 (tip of anal fin shorter than base when folded back).....4

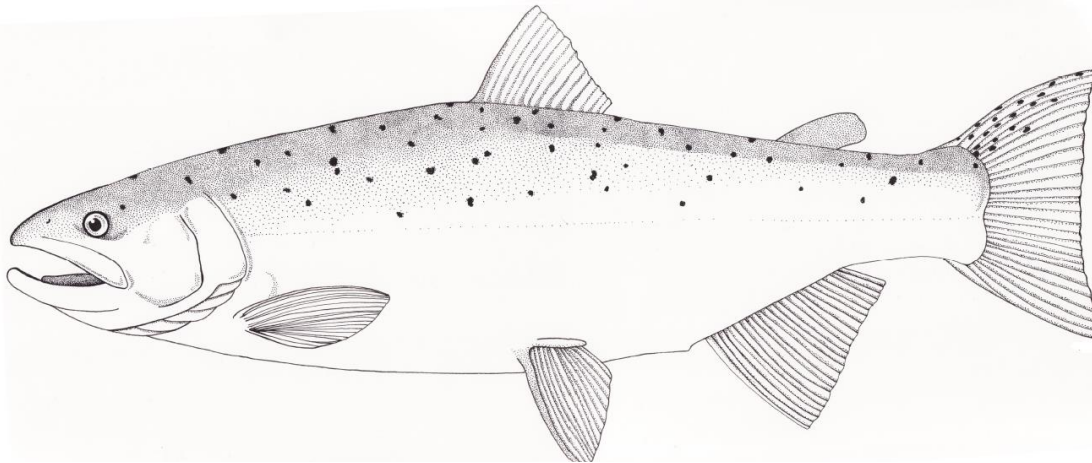

4. a) Black spots on upper lobe of caudal fin only; gums at base of teeth white/gray: coho salmon
 b) Black spots throughout caudal fin; gums at base of teeth black: chinook salmon

Rainbow trout

Chinook salmon

Coho salmon

Brown trout

Atlantic salmon